2. Functions of the Department (Role & relevance of the department)

Protocol & Hospitality Wing is responsible for state protocol matters and ceremonial events. It organizes and coordinates protocol affairs for major visits of the VVIPs and VIPs and manages matters related to courteous reception and privileges of those visiting State Guests coming to the State. It also develops protocol rules including Warrant of Precedence, State Guest Rules etc. One function of Protocol & Hospitality Wing includes generating welcome letters, arranging for small gifts and tokens of appreciation or making phone calls to facilitate dignitaries' travel plans. Occasionally, it plans elaborate ceremonies marking the arrival of State Guests. State dinners are a major and frequent protocol function of the Department.

Protocol & Hospitality Wing also functions as support to logistics and manages its role as event planners. Officers and Staff under Protocol & Hospitality Wing exercise judgment, poise and interpersonal skills as they interact with high officials involved

After visits from dignitaries, Protocol & Hospitality Wing also frequently ensures proper follow-up with thank you notes and tokens of appreciation such as commemorative photographs, plaques and trophies. The function of Protocol & Hospitality Wing may be regarded as one of the most complex and diversified in nature among the Departments in the Government of Mizoram
